To who ever is fortunate enough to work with Marilyn,

From 1999-2008, I worked very closely with Marilyn Carter as a media developer for TEXAS MONTHLY magazine. Marilyn Carter was Wonder Woman amongst a stellar team of marketing super heroes. Our firm Time & Space was responsible for developing the automotive advertising category, our focus being the largest companies on the planet, GM, FORD, DCX, Toyota and Nissan.

Capturing the attention of these large marketing teams is difficult, since every seller and marketer wants a piece of the pie. Every time I met with these teams I was always prepared thanks to Marilyn Carter. I can't tell you how many times they complemented my ideas and presentations...

Marilyn gets it done when others can't. Her ability to understand marketing objectives, hot buttons and client challenges is uncanny. I only needed to ask Marilyn once, and with clear direction, she created original ideas and programs, and communicated them in dynamic and focused presentations. I was always confident taking Marilyn with me in high-level meetings.

Marilyn gets it... She is working with me on a new venture, and with her on the team I know we are heading in the right direction...

Sincerely,
